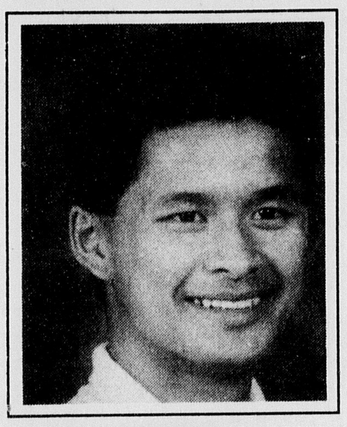
Suspect in Grocery Outlet shooting arrested in Sacto



BOOKED:
Lo Choi Saelee

The suspect in a near-fatal shooting at a West Sacramento store May 6 has been arrested.

Lo Choi Saelee, 21, was arrested by Sacramento police officers at a Stockton Blvd. motel at about 5 p.m. on Wednesday. According to a police report, a friend of the suspect led police to the site.

The shooting occurred at about 5:40 a.m. at the Grocery Outlet store at Harbor and West Capitol in West Sacramento. A masked gunman knocked at the back door before store hours and an employee, thinking a delivery was being made, opened the door.

Anthony Cavazos, 25, was one of the employees working at the store. After being rounded up into a walk-in freezer, Cavazos became loose and was shot by the suspect. The suspect then fled the scene.

Police believe Saelee, a Sacramento resident, was the would-be robber. He is an ex-employee of the store.

His arrest by members of the Sacramento Police Department's gang unit was without incident. He was released to West Sacramento detectives and was expected to be charged with attempted murder and armed robbery.

Cavazos, who was critically wounded by the gunshot, is recovering from his injury.

WEST SACRAMENTO OBSERVED MEMORIAL DAY QUIETLY on Monday, with this flag display on West Capitol Ave. between Jefferson Blvd. and Westacre Road. The holiday evolved from beginnings over a century ago, in post-Civil War times, as a means of remembering Americans who gave their lives in the country's battles.

District adds detail to proceedings involving kids, drug accusations

Six students from Golden State Middle School are scheduled for disciplinary hearings on June 5, said a Washington Unified School District administrator. The hearings could end in expulsion for the students, who were implicated during an investigation at the school which began with suspected marijuana involvement among students.

The school's principal, Diane Tope-Smith, declined last week to state the number of children who had been suspended as part of that investigation this month. She also declined to give the News-Ledger a reason for withholding the information. But in response to a query made by the News-Ledger to acting superintendent Dennis Kelleher, David Kopperud, the district's administrator for child welfare, told the News-Ledger that six such hearings would be taking place on June 5.

Other information, such as whether any additional discipline hearings would take place on other days, was not immediately available.

The hearings could recommend the temporarily-suspended students be returned to class, or the administrative panels in charge may recommend suspension or expulsion from Golden State.

City of West Sacramento

Washington Unified School District's job of providing classroom space for West Sacramento students was made a little easier last week when it received more office space from the City of West Sacramento. A 4,320-square-foot portable structure that had been used for police administration was moved, following City Council approval, from the Police Department's previous headquarters at 3rd and C Streets to the school district's site on Westacre Road. The building will be used to house administrative personnel, opening up more space for students and helping the district meet state mandates for reduced class size. "We were able to free up two classrooms for more students and consolidate administrative personnel," indicated Pat Flint, Washington Unified School District board member. "We really appreciate the cooperation of the City and are excited about building on the partnership between us," she added.

City representatives on the joint City/School District 2X2, which is a regularly scheduled meeting between two city council members, two school board members and appropriate staff, see this as an opportunity to share resources and continue a mutually beneficial relationship. Christopher Cabaldon, one of the city council representatives on the City/School 2X2 welcomed the opportunity to share the surplus property. "We are particularly excited about helping to improve the quality of education in our community," he said.

The city and school district have a good track record of cooperation. The city made available, at no cost, another portable structure to the district when it took title to the former Salud Clinic last year. In addition, the city and school district actively share facilities. The city Parks and Community Services Department utilizes school facilities in the summer for swimming lessons, summer youth and lunch programs while the school district makes use of them during school hours.

Local 'safety net' group needs your time, help

From the Short Term Emergency Aid Committee (STEAC)
Davis

Can you help? Each month STEAC helps several Yolo County families in need with furniture and clothing. At this time, the furniture closet needs some replenishing to keep up with the demand for certain basic necessities. Families are on waiting lists for beds (especially singles and doubles), kitchen tables and chairs, pots, pans, and car-seats (small and large). Furniture pick-up may be arranged in the Davis area.

Currently, the STEAC clothing closet is closed for spring cleaning. Clothing will again be distributed and donations accepted after June 2.

Whether you have items to donate or not, please consider joining the STEAC team of volunteers. Many rewarding positions are currently open. If you have only a few hours a month to help and like to write, you may want to consider helping STEAC with publicity. If you have a few hours available each week and are interested in learning more about STEAC, you could start by helping with office maintenance. Or if you could work a few evenings a week, you might help staff the STEAC access line. For this position, a one year commitment is requested and training is provided. Community members who speak Spanish are particular encouraged to apply. Please call 758-5444 between 8 and 10 p.m. any day of the year to donate items or to volunteer.

STEAC is a community-based, non-profit, volunteer organization that provides emergency food, clothing, furniture, and some limited financial aid to Yolo County residents.

Individuals and families needing assistance are generally referred to STEAC through recognized social service agencies throughout the county.

City Engineer Joe Loop moves on

From the City of West Sacramento

Joseph Loop announced on May 16 that he was resigning from his position as West Sacramento City Engineer to pursue other professional opportunities.

Loop was hired in 1991 from a U.S. State Department job in Santiago, Chile, where he oversaw construction of the new U.S. Embassy. He served as city engineer during his employment with the City of West Sacramento. He managed he engineering division of the Community Development Department.

During his tenure, the division accomplished some pivotal projects, including: the Palamidessi Bridge; Harbor Boulevard improvements; expansion of the Bryte Bend Water Treatment Plant; Jefferson Boulevard/US50 intersection improvements; and the West Capital Avenue Bike Lane. Additionally, several important professional improvements that have enabled the division to better offer quality service were made, including implementation of Computer Assisted Design (CAD), integration of a Global Position System (GPS), completion of the Master Water Plan, the Southport Drainage Plan, and a Traffic Model and associated fee structure.

Of particular note are the several levee repair projects that were also completed and the subsequent removal of West Sacramento from the designated flood-plain on FEMA maps. This change of status eliminated the requirement for flood insurance on federally issued loans, saving thousands of dollars for members of the community.

Opera House prepares acclaimed play for local stage starting June 6

The Woodland Opera House will present The Sisters Rosenweig, by Wendy Wasserstein, June 6-28. Winner of the Outer Critics Circle award for best Broadway Play in 1993, this new comedy is "a captivating portrait of three disparate sisters reuniting after a lengthy separation and coming to terms with their differences, respect, and love for one another."

Sara Goode, a successful American working in London, is about to celebrate her 54th birthday and she isn't happy about it. She leads a quiet, expatriate life with her teenage daughter. For the celebration her two sisters are expected. Suddenly their friends, her sometimes English gentleman, her daughter's boyfriend, and a new acquaintance all appear in one memorable, and revealing, evening. All this leads to a gentle play of humor and unexpected romance.

The play is directed by Lydia Venables. Ron Clyma is the scene designer with costumes by Helen Clark. Sue Kenyon is the stage manager. The cast includes Gwyneth Bruch, Russ Bruch, Kristina Goodnight, Diane Bartlett, Daniel W. Slausson, Maria Ryken, Skyler Venables, and Chris Lamb.

Production dates are Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. from June 6-28. For reservations or information call the WOH Box Office noon-5 p.m. daily and 12-4 p.m. Saturdays, 666-9617.

Attention, low income seniors:

From the California Franchise Tax Board

An estimated 160,000 elderly and disabled homeowners and renters are eligible for refunds through the annual Homeowner and Renter Assistance Program that runs from May 15 through September 1, announced the Franchise Tax Board (FTB).

To qualify, claimants must be at least 62 years old, or be blind or totally disabled as of December 31, 1996. Claimants must also have $13,200 or less in total household income in 1996. Homeowners can receive from four percent to 96 percent of the property tax they paid on the first $34,000 assessed value of their home. Renters can receive assistance ranging from $10 to $240.

FTB advises claimants who have filed in the past two years to wait until they receive their labeled forms before filing. The state will mail forms in mid-May. Refund checks will be mailed once the 1997/1998 state budget is passed. Last year, 156,000 individuals claimed assistance totalling over $15 million. The average refund check was $93.

To make filing easier, hundreds of volunteer assistance sites are available throughout the state to explain qualifying requirements and help with preparing the forms. Call the nearest Senior Information and Referral Center for the location and hours of the nearest site. For recorded answers to questions about Homeowner and Renter Assistance, call (800) 338-0505.

Religious Science Church moves

Beginning June 1, the Yolo County Church of Religious Science will be conducting services at a new location. The new meeting place is Redwood Park Alternate Recreation Room, 1111 Anderson Boulevard in Davis. Services are held on Sunday from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.

The Yolo County Church of Religious Science is an affiliate of the United Church of Religious Science, a worldwide organization, based in Los Angeles, California. Its teachings are based on the metaphysical principals of its founder, Ernest Holmes.

The speaker for June 1 will be Reverend Laura Lee, retired minister of the Orangevale Church of Religious Science. Revered Lee continues to teach practitioner classes at the Orangevale church. She also serves as guest speaker at other Religious Science churches. Two former students of Reverend Lee, Russ Miller and Mary Wells will speak in Davis in June.

Crisis line volunteers are needed

Suicide Prevention of Yolo County (SPYC) is recruiting community volunteers to serve on its two 24-hour crisis lines. The Suicide Prevention and Allied Services for Kids (ASK) crisis lines provide telephone crisis intervention services to adults, teens and families in need. Suicide Prevention has been supported through community volunteerism for the past 30 years.

This training and volunteer program provides an opportunity for the community to help others dealing with multiple issues, including depression, loneliness, grief, suicidality, family crisis, and interpersonal conflict. Volunteers will learn how to assist people in crisis through the use of active listening, guided problem solving, and linkage to community resources.

Interviews are now being scheduled for this 36-hour training which will begin late-June.

The training will run on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. for six weeks. Upon completion of the training, volunteers will be prepared to begin answering calls on the crisis line.

Please call SPYC at 756-7542 for more information or an application packet.

The NBA playoffs continue with the Western Conference finals starting last week and Houston and Utah are in a dog fight! The Jazz won their first two games at home and the Rockets returned the favor, winning both of their home games. The series is the best of seven and Utah has the home court advantage. The Jazz had a week's rest to plan their strategy on the Rockets, but this series should go seven games and I still like Rockets chances. Former Kings star Eddie "EJ" Johnson was the hero in both of Houston wins. Houston rookie point guard Matt Maloney started out like gang-busters in his first three playoffs against Seattle but lately Maloney has been shooting bricks and turning over the ball! If the Rockets are to deny the Jazz their first Conference title, Maloney needs to stop all that baloney! Houston in seven games!

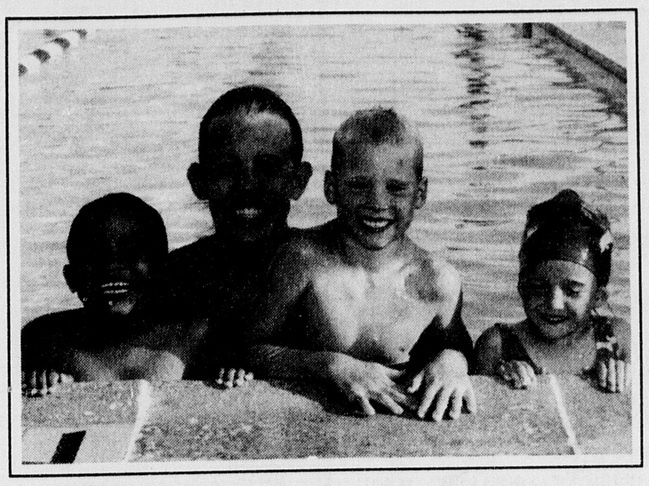
A couple of weeks ago in the Eastern Conference the New York Knicks were beating the Miami Heat, three games to one, and they were talking about one more victory and a chance at the Chicago Bulls. Well, a funny thing happened on the way to the dance! They got into a team brawl! A couple of weeks ago I mentioned that the Knicks should win this series but I did point out the their ex-coach Pat Riley, who by the way received the NBA Coach of the Year honor, might create a problem for the Knicks in their quest to win the championship. After the brawl the Knicks had five starting players suspended, three for game six and two for game seven. Well, Miami turned up the Heat and won game six in New York 95-90 and then scorched the Knicks again in game seven in Miami. The rest is history! The Eastern Conference finals feature the defending NBA champion Chicago Bulls against Pat Riley's Miami Heat. The Bulls are playing better these days and should cool off the Heat and win this series.

The Giants and A's pitchers continue to get beat up but the only difference in the Bay Area teams is that the Giants (28-20) are still in first place while the A's (20-31) are in last place in their divisions. This next week will tell how good the Giants are as they head back to play the Atlanta Braves (34-15), Florida Marlins (29-19) and the Los Angeles Dodgers. The A's are at home this week against Anaheim, Toronto and the Detroit Tigers.

The HBO boxing extravaganza at the Arco Arena is set to go on Saturday, June 7 with 60 rounds of professional boxing that will feature eight bouts, including West Sac's undefeated Willie Jorrin (16-0, 9 KO's). Jorrin will have his biggest test of his career when he fights Mexico's Enrique Jupiter. Jupiter (31-6, 26 KO's) is ranked 7th in the Junior featherweight division (124-lbs) by the World Boxing Council. This HBO fight will be blackout in Sacramento. First fight is at 6:30 p.m. The tickets are priced at $22, $32, $42, and $55 and can be purchased at the Arco Arena box office or call me at 372-7332. I have some of the best seats in the House!

See ya next week!

'Tis the (swim) season



Assistant Dolphins Coach Jason Potnick with some of the club's 6-and-under swimmers.

From the West Sacramento Dolphins

The West Sacramento Dolphins Swim Team will be holding their Annual Blue & White Meet this coming Saturday starting at 8 a.m. The meet will be held at the River City High School Pool and all are welcome to attend and cheer on your West Sacramento Dolphins. The Dolphins comprise of children between the ages of four and 18 years. The team has expanded to around 180 swimmers this year and many swimmers will be having their first taste of competitive swimming.

At the Blue & White meet the team is split into two teams which go head to head with the same format as they will have when they complete against other teams in the Northern California Swim League.

The Dolphins have been training hard for the past two months and are definitely ready to swim hard for the next two months on their way to the Northern California Swim League Championships in late July.

Ending on a winning note

From Chuck Robinson

The River City High School varsity baseball team won its last league game against Lindhurst by a score of 2 to 1. River City had 2 runs on 5 hits, 2 errors. Lindhurst had 1 run on 3 hits, 1 error. Randy Byard was the winning pitcher, with Allen Pearson doing the catching. R.C. took second place in the league with a record of 15-7 overall and 10-2 in league. Hitting was Marc Palamidessi, 1 for 3, 1 RBI; Brian Schrimsher, 1 for 3; Byard, 1 for 2, 2B, 1 RBI; Chris Shower, 1 for 2; and Steve Hawkinson, 1 for 2.

Saturday, in the first T.O.C. game at Lodi, River City beat Vanden, 12 to 8. This really made the coaches proud, as this is the first time in five years the Raiders have been able to beat Vanden -- what a thrill! River City scored in every inning -- 4-1-1-1-1-2-2 = 12 runs on 10 hits, 6 errors; Vanden scored 2-0-4-0-0-0-2 = 8 runs on 9 hits, 0 errors. Byard was the winning pitcher with Allen Pearson doing the catching. Hitting was Jaimes Timas, 1 for 3, 3B; Marc Palamidessi, 1 for 4, 2 RBIs; Byard, 2 for 3, H.R., 1 RBI; Schrimsher, 1 for 4, H.R., 3 RBIs; Pearson, 2 for 4, 2-2B; Chris Shower, 1 for 2; Steve Hawkinson, 1 for 3, H.R., 1 RBI; and Gary Herren, 1 for 3, 1 RBI.

R.C. will play Tuesday night in Lodi at Zupo Park at 7 p.m. They play the winner of Ripon and Denair.

J.V.'s Beat Lindhurst

The junior varsity baseball team finished the season by beating Lindhurst 18 to 4. R.C. scored 18 runs on 22 hits, 0 errors. Lindhurst scored 4 runs on 7 hits, 4 errors. Ronny Crayne was the winning pitcher. Crayne finished the season with 10 wins and 4 losses.

Hitting was Brady Tacdol, 4 for 5, 2-3B, 4 RBIs; Hector Yabes, 2 for 5; Crayne, 3 for 4, H.R., 2B, 5 RBIs; Eric King, 2 for 2, 2 RBIs; Robert Cervantes, 3 for 4, H.R., 2-3B, 3 RBIs; Gilbert Savala, 3B; and Trinon Myers, 2 for 3, 2B.

R.C. won the 1997 championship. Head coach Rod Massey has won 9 championships in the last 15 years. Coach Massey said he was very proud of this team, as put it together and came out on top.

Fazel, Saechao take singles prize

From River City High School

River City High School's Ahmad Fazel became the first Raider tennis player in 14 years to capture a league singles championship last Monday, and the very next day teammate Meuy Saechao became the school's first girl ever to win the league title in singles. Competing in the Golden Empire Championships at Lindhurst High, the top two Raiders were crowned the top two players in the G.E.L. Fazel defeated Marysville's Beau Powell 6-2, 7-6 in the final match to join the late Vic Torres (1981) and current R.C. Coach, Dave Brooks (1983) as league singles champions. In the girls event, Saechao downed teammate Douangchanh Lattasima 6-2, 6-3 in the final after the two Raiders had cruised through the rest of the league's top female players. "There have been a lot of great girls singles players at River City over the years, from LuAnn Stout (Bosley) in the late 70's to Hoang Truong and Mirthala Santizo in the mid-90's, but not until Meuy have we had a girls singles champion," said an ecstatic Brooks.

In the doubles events, the Raiders took, two of the three league titles with Bethany Monroe and Aenoy Xayasone (girls) and Khonthavy Phouanglasy and Peter Santizo (mixed) winning championships and the boys team of Sarom Phoung and Jeff Wright falling just short in the final match against the top two players from Colfax 4-6, 4-6. For Monroe, it was the second straight league girls doubles title, having paired with Saechao in 1996. She and Xayasone were never seriously challenged in the tournament, while Phouanglasy and Santizo had a tough semifinal against the top players from Lindhurst before blasting Colfax in the final.

All of the above named Raiders then competed in the Sac-Joaquin Section Division III Tournament in Stockton last week. The tourney has the top players from six leagues in the Section competing in the five events, with schools from as far north as Marysville and as far south as Modesto and Livingston competing. Nearly 25 schools were represented, but none had more players qualify than River City's nine. Lattasima and the Phoung/Wright team were ousted in the first round by the eventual champions from Escalon and St. Helena, while Monroe and Xayasone were defeated in the quarterfinals, also by an eventual St. Helena champion team. Phouanglasy and Santizo triumphed over a mixed pair from Central Catholic of Modesto in the quarters, before falling to Justin Sienna (Napa) in the semis. Likewise, Fazel in boys singles defeated Mira Loma's top boy in the round of eight before losing to John Swett's Brian Nakayama in the semifinals. Saechao went the furthest of all the Raiders, winning matches over the top players from Ripon and Justin Sienna before facing Escalon's Hilary Eccles in a 0-6, 4-6 final. The semifinal match against Heather Drennan of Justin Sienna lasted nearly three hours, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4, and Saechao had very little energy left for the Eccles match.

This week the Raiders wrap up their incredible 1997 season with the Section Team Championships.

They will face Summerville in a quarterfinal match, and the winner will take on the winner of Livingston and St. Helena. The other teams remaining are Justin Sienna, Escalon, Colfax, and Amador. The semis and final are tomorrow in Stockton.

News-Ledger Editorial

A plan for the kids' summer

An unwelcome early heat wave gave way last week to the spring weather we believe we are entitled to.

Nevertheless, the signs of summer are still here.

School commencement ceremonies are starting to pop up on TV and in the papers, and schoolkids around these parts are starting to get a little glint in their eye as the countdown of remaining school days continues.

Summer means summer vacation, to most of them.

And this is a pretty good time to think about what the children of West Sacramento will be up to for the next few months, when school is out for these kids.

Fortunately, there are more options than first meet the eye for youth in West Sacramento. True, there is no real shopping mall for kids to hang out in, but just how wholesome is that, anyway? There are no movie theaters, either, but there are some nearby -- not much farther than the nearest bus stop.

Even better for many kids are the various athletic and recreational opportunities available in organized programs.

West Sacramento has youth baseball, soccer, football, rowing and swim leagues, to name a few. The local parks department (373-5860) has a bunch of organized activities through the summer, and usually offers everything from karate lessons to a road trip to a theme park.

Oh yes, West Sacramento also has a library. How about a weekly family trip to the library for everyone in the family to find a good book or buy a good magazine (for only a dime!). Virtually everyone enjoys reading when he or she gets to choose the topic.

There are two good reasons for local kids to be encouraged to find something constructive to do with their summer time.

One is that at-risk kids who do not have something good to do with their summer leisure are subject to influences that aren't so healthy. It's worth bearing in mind that experts say kids often join gangs because they feel a need to "belong" to something, since they don't get that feeling of belonging at home or elsewhere in their lives.

We need to help them belong to something that's good for them and good for society as well.

The second reason is that organized sports and other activities tend to be good for kids, besides just keeping them out of trouble. Playing an organized game or participating in a supervised trip is not only fun, but helps create good adults. Kids should have every opportunity their family and community can provide for them in order to find their full potential.

Summer is for many a time of vacation and relaxing. But for kids, especially, that doesn't mean it's three months that should be wasted!

Letters to the Editor

Thanks, News-Ledger

Thank you for sponsoring the West Sacramento 1997 Step Out for Senior Centers event. This event took place statewide and included over 60 cities and over 15,000 participants. The purpose of the event was to promote a positive image of aging.

In West Sacramento our event included a health fair, showcase of programs and services, demonstrations on the bandstand, and a one, two, or three mile walk. Over 125 registered for the walk and an additional 50 others came exclusively for the health fair, showcase of programs and services, and the demonstrations on the bandstand.

Because of sponsorships we were able to keep the event free and to give away over 100 items as door prizes. Your donation of two ticket vouchers to Sacramento Theatre Company was truly appreciated. The name of your business was included in the event Program, and was announced over and over at the event. It is because of the generosity of local merchants such as yourself that we are able to do so much for the senior citizens of West Sacramento.

Thanks again for your sponsorship and hope you will be a part of the 1998 Step Out for Senior Center.

Thanks for Review

On behalf of the staff of The Review and myself, I wish to express great appreciation to the News-Ledger for its continuing support for River City's student newspaper.

This is the third year that the The Review has been published monthly during the school year as a supplement to the News-Ledger, a partnership that is unique in the greater Sacramento area.

This arrangement provides community-wide circulation for our student journalists and keeps the community informed of news and activities at River City.

We are proud of the professionalism the News-Ledger has helped us to attain and look forward to our first issue of the 1997-98 school year in September.

Thank you for your immense contribution to River City High School and to the West Sacramento community.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

The Sacramento River registered 3 feet 6 inches, United States gauge at the Southern Pacific bridge yesterday. This is the lowest stage of the river for this time of the year in twenty years. A year ago at this time the river gauge showed on the same date 11 feet 10 inches, as was then recorded on the gauge on the Southern Pacific bridge. N. R. Taylor, meteorologist, declared that the river during the month of April averaged 4 feet 5 inches, which is 15 feet 1 inch below the normal stage.

A new home is being built by Marcel Tash on his ranch near Riverview, on the highway lately built through West Sacramento. The home will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000 and is one of the first to be built in that locality. The contractor is M. F. Terra of Sacramento.

Saturday noon will be the last day on which the canneries of Sacramento will receive consignments of spinach. The crop is about harvested and any that is yet left on the land will be permitted to go to seed. However, nearly all the growers have finished harvesting and had a fairly good crop with a standard price under contract with the California Packing Corporation.

A license was issued last Tuesday to Edward LeRoy Mackey and Pearl Alberta O'Haver, both of West Sacramento. The license was issued in Sacramento and the young people have already gone on a short honeymoon.

Frank Janik was receiving his principal consignments of goods yesterday with which to stock his store at West Sacramento headquarters. Besides the automobile service station he has established there, he will also carry a stock of cigars, soft drinks, ice and a small selection of groceries. The service station is now nearly completed and is a model for convenience and quick service. Janik will also add to his stock as he goes along and expects to make his place a stopping place for all West Sacramento farmers and travelers from the Holland district.

The Washington Star Club initiated three new members last Wednesday night in its weekly meeting at the Westminster Church in Sacramento. The club has now joined the Twilight Baseball League of Sacramento and is on the schedule for games with other clubs of the league. Last Sunday the boys played the Japanese team of Sacramento and beat them by a score of 19 to 9.

The Canteen Auto Camp has disposed of nearly all its tents and those not yet sold will be disposed of as soon as possible. It is the intention of McNally & Partridge, the owners, to build a permanent structure to house tourists. They report that during the past week increased travel on the state highway has added considerably to their business, and that as the quarantine is being lifted on account of the foot and mouth disease the increase in traffic is becoming more noticeable.

Leo Lee has been added to the force of the Fraser & Doyle service station to look after the root beer stand that was lately opened by the owners. Lee reports that business is good, but nevertheless he is about to quit to go into business for himself in Sacramento. To replace him, it is the intention of Fraser & Doyle to place a fascinating young lady in charge of the stand.

H. Barton, a vagrant picked up by Constable Buckingham last Monday, was sent to the county jail for sixty days by Judge Barry. He had been loafing around the jungles south of the M street bridge and evidently was cooking canned heat for his own use and the use of several others who have become victims of the Volstead law.

Annie Brusch was returned to Woodland last Friday by Judge Barry to spend ninety days with Sheriff Monroe for having transgressed on the promise she made three days before when she was released by the sheriff. Just three days out of jail, Annie forgot herself and in the carelessness of a wonderful jag brought on by canned heat she stretched out in the shade of the M street bridge, where she was picked up by Constable Buckingham. After sobering up in the local calaboose she was taken before Judge Barry, who sentenced her to ninety days with the sheriff.

Roy Sherman and family from Orange County in Southern California, was a visitor last Wednesday at the Van Deren and George homes. The family was on its way from the south to visit relatives in Plumas County and stayed only a few hours in Washington.

Last Tuesday, Jim Meyers of Live Oak spent the day at the home of Mrs. George. He returned to Live Oak Wednesday morning.

John Bernacchi has bought a half interest in the Hoffman House from D. Mazoni and in the future will attend strictly to the business in the place. It is the intention of the proprietors to add pool and billiard tables to the establishment and make their place an inviting resort for the young men of the community. Bernacchi intends to move his family, which consists of seven children, to Washington.

Real improvements are being made at the Beale store by the installation of several large show cases and other conveniences that will help to give better service to customers. For perishable goods a refrigerator show case has been installed, wherein will be stored butter, cheese, eggs, milk and such perishables.

The Washington meat market is undergoing a renovation under the direction of the proprietor, Ed. Moss. The place is being painted and thoroughly cleaned.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jasper of Wheatland were entertained Wednesday at the Washington home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron.

Harley Austin and family have returned to their Washington home after a week's visit spent in the vicinity of Clear Lake.

Mrs. Catherine Brown of Washington is spending a few days visiting at the home of her brother, John Reese of Florin.

Among the Washington residents serving on a jury in Woodland Wednesday were Mrs. A. A. Dassonville, Mrs. Maggie Hanson, Mrs. Annie Korrell, Mrs. Cora Snyder and Norman White.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron spent Tuesday in Woodland on a business visit from their Washington home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Pagnello and son Richard, accompanied by Mrs. Avril Shoemaker and children, have returned to Washington, after spending a few days in Oakland visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Deren have moved from Oak Park to Washington and are now occupying the Hansen home at the corner of Second and Harriet streets.

O. P. Cook is making extensive improvements on his property, including the erecting of an additional two rooms to the house.

The Washington grammar school will close on June 20th for the summer vacation, and will reopen on September 10th.

After spending the past few days in the vicinity of Dillon's Beach, J. A. Allerton and family and Miss Elizabeth Moran returned to their Washington home.

Vernon Porter, who recently returned from an extensive trip which included a stay in Honolulu, is visiting in Washington as the guest of his mother, Mrs Harry Davis.

HIRAM A FAVORITE IN THIS SECTION OF YOLO COUNTY

Although Hiram Johnson lost the State of California last Tuesday, to Calvin Coolidge by a majority of over 50,000 votes, there remains the fact that the voters of Sacramento and Yolo Counties still gave him a majority vote.

The returns by precincts in Washington were as follows:

NORTH WASHINGTON

Johnson	48
Coolidge	11
McAdoo	38

LIVESTOCK IS MOVING AGAIN ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

Yesterday four carloads of cattle were moved into Sacramento on a Southern Pacific train, the first that has been seen in shipment since the quarantine was placed on account of the foot and mouth disease.

Yesterday 10,000 young lambs were reported in transit from Willows to eastern markets, but confirmation of this report could not be received by the Independent.

This is welcome news to farmers who have been looking for an outlet for their stock for slaughtering, and evidently is a forerunner to a complete relief of the quarantines that have been in existence for several weeks.

In another column column will be found word published from the central headquarters that the disease is practically under control or nearly entirely subdued.

The loss to farmers has been great, especially those whose stock has been slaughtered after having been found afflicted with the disease.

Fortunately the federal government gave all the aid possible in quelling the disease.

Foreign authorities credit Japan with practically 100 per cent literacy.

REAL BLOCKADE FOLLOWED BIG FIRE IN SACRAMENTO

For two hours last Wednesday evening, Constable Buckingham was forced to act as traffic officer on the Southern Pacific bridge in an effort to keep traffic moving following the great fire at the fruit sheds of the Southern Pacific Company along the waterfront.

Residents of Washington who watched the parade are willing to assert that not less than 10,000 automobiles passed between the two bridges and returned to Sacramento.

The principal jam occurred at the entrance to the Southern Pacific bridge at Third and Anne streets, where autos were lined up forty and fifty to a line waiting for a chance to pass.

For more than two hours the stream of autos passed continuously between one bridge and another, some coming west over the M street bridge and some over the Southern Pacific bridge.

Fortunately every driver knew that it was imperative on him to drive slowly and no damage was done, although some cars were held in line for more than two hours.

CLARKSBURG PARENTS WANT BETTER ROAD FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Woodland, May 6.—An appeal for road improvement on the Sacramento levee route from Freeport to Clarksburg was made to the board of supervisors here yesterday by a delegation of Clarksburg union school district, pleading in the interests of education. According to the report of the delegation, it is now impossible to travel the present road, denying the children the opportunity of attending school from the north of Clarksburg.

There has recently been added to the levee road several feet of sand from dredging operations made by the adjoining reclamation district to bring the levee up to road grade with the understanding that the road would then be improved or paved. There now exists a stretch of three miles which is practically impassable, thus making it impossible for the school bus of the district to make the trip. This forces the trip to be made by a back road which is also in poor shape and in the rainy season impossible to travel.

The need of the Clarksburg people is undenied by the board and it is only the financial problem that is confronting them. Supervisor W. E. M. Beardslee, who took his seat with the board yesterday for the first time since his appointment, will no doubt make this call the first business of his official position.

JAPANESE GIRL DROWNS IN WEST SACRAMENTO CANAL

A three-year-old Japanese girl, the daughter of Miyano Yuki, farmer of West Sacramento, was drowned Wednesday afternoon in an irrigation ditch, a short distance from where her parent was working in a field.

The father saw the child fall into the ditch and rushed to her rescue. She was dragged from the water a few minutes later and a physician summoned, but the child was dead when the doctor arrived. The little girl had been playing in the field and in an unguarded moment ventured to the edge of the ditch and fell into the water.

The body of the child was taken to Sacramento for burial following an investigation of the case by Coroner Ross Wilson.

Statistics issued the other day go to show that Native Sons in California are decreasing.

Surely nobody will have the hardihood to accuse the natives of birth control ideas.

The accusation has often been made that the Anti-Saloon League is running the government of these United States.

But you can't notice it, can you? Lots of booze.

HAY PRICES NOW RANGING AROUND $20 PER TON

In the Holland district last Monday 250 tons of baled alfalfa hay was sold for $20 per ton in the field.

This is a splendid price for first cutting alfalfa and will mean at least $24 or $25 per ton for other crops to come later on.

No hay was left over from the harvest of last year and owing to the shortage of the rainfall of this last spring large crops of hay are not expected by the growers.

Several farmers in West Sacramento have started irrigating their alfalfa fields and these should reap a splendid harvest during the coming fall.. Irrigated alfalfa grows wonderfully in the West Sacramento district, for even without irrigation six crops are usually produced.

At the present writing all irrigation ditches in the district are filled to the brim and many whose land borders on low canals have only to cut a ditch to permit their fields to be flooded.

Around Dixon and between there and Suisun hundreds of acres of grain along the Southern Pacific right of way appear as if the crop of grain was not worth cutting. As a matter of fact, sheep are being turned into many fields, indicating a hopelessness for a hay crop or even a grain crop in that locality.

The Holland district and the West Sacramento districts are faring splendidly, not only in the alfalfa crop but in the grain crop.

ELECTION POSTPONED MEETING OF BOOSTERS CLUB LAST TUESDAY

Owing to the fact that the town hall was occupied by the election board last Tuesday evening, the regular meeting of the Washington Boosters Club was postponed to next Tuesday night at 8 p. m.

Several members of the club gathered on the outside of the hall, but feeling that the election returns should not be disturbed, no meeting was called.

An increased membership is expected to be present at the next meeting, because the membership committee has been active in soliciting the presence at the club of many of the property owners of the town.

TAX DELINQUENCY IN YOLO COUNTY IS $14,831.00

Woodland, May 8.—Tax Collector Robert Woods yesterday made his settlement of the collections of the second installment of taxes with County Auditor R. P. Wallace. His collections during the month of April amounted to $319,391.51, which, with taxes previously collected, aggregates the sum of $905,185.67 collected for the tax period.

Woods is charged with $920,017.64, leaving a delinquency of $14,831.97, or 1.612 per cent. This is a trifle more than the average percentage of delinquency, it generally running about from 1 per cent to 1 1-3 per cent.

A considerable amount will yet be collected before Woods makes his final settlement which occurs on or about June 12, at which time such property as then remains delinquent is sold to the state and owners must resort to the more complicated and expensive process of redeeming such tax sales through the office of the county auditor.

In spite of repeated warnings, deaths are caused by the operation of automobile engines in closed garages. Carbon monoxide is given off by an automobile engine at all times and is extremely poisonous. When it is necessary to leave the engine running, all the doors and windows of the garage should be open or the car should be driven into the open.

ADDITIONAL GROUND IS TAKEN OVER FOR CAMPING PURPOSES

A block of vacant ground, bounded by Fourth and Fifth streets and by Harriett and Mary streets, now vacant, with the exception of four small houses, has been taken over by J. Pereira to be used by him as an addition to the West Sacramento auto camp.

Yesterday Pereira told the Independent that it was his intention to clean up and remodel the houses on the block and also to place the entire block in condition for camping.

This property has been owned by Mrs. J. Harbinson for several years, bringing but little revenue in rentals for the houses that were occupied by colored residents or Mexicans.

The property is now under option by Pereira, to be purchased outright before the option expires.

Pereira has also bought the house and lot at the corner of Fourth and Mary streets, also formerly owned by Mrs. Harbinson. This house he will have remodeled for his own residence and will direct both camping blocks frrom central headquarters to be located in this latter house.

AUTOISTS AND PEDESTRIANS WATCH EACH OTHER CAREFULLY

Axel Field, a pedestrian in West Sacramento, last Wednesday night at a point just north of headquarters was somewhat injured when he bumped into an automobile driven by Ted Jackson of Auburn.

It would seem that Field was somewhat scared of the automobile and in the glare of the headlights moved out into the center of the road. Jackson, believing him to be a holdup man, stepped on the gas and luckily for Field, he jumped on the radiator of the car just as he was about to be struck. Explanations were made and Constable Buckingham, who had been summoned to the point squared the matter up.

Jackson took Field to the emergency hospital in Sacramento and had his injuries attended to.

Last Monday night as Buckingham was returning from Woodland, a red light was flashed on him at a point at about half-way between the causeway and the Fifth street subway. He slowed down, but anticipating trouble he prepared for it, for he believed the party waving the red light intended to hold him up.

Evidently the parties recognized the constable and proceeded on their way to Sacramento, remarking as they passed Buckingham's car, "How far would you have gone if you hadn't stopped."

Buckingham followed the auto but the occupants made sure of eluding him by extinguishing their lights and running into some side road where they were missed.

RIVER GROWERS SET PRICE FOR SCHEDULE PACKING

Courtland, May 3.—Representatives of the various fruit shipping concerns in this district met here with growers to fix prices for fruit packing in the coming season.

Agreement was reached that no bonus will be paid for packing and that if a head packer is to be employed, he will be paid by the day or month.

The following schedule was adopted:

Students spread the word about HIV

By Courtney Myers
Staff Writer

The HIV Peer Educators made their semi-annual visit to Mr. Rackley's family life education classes last Friday.

Members of the group were joined Thursday by four people who have been diagnosed with the HIV virus. The speakers talked about what life is like with HIV and how they try to cope. The speakers ranged in age from 21 to 40. One of the speakers graduated from RC in 1994. It could be a person you see in the halls, maybe someone you know. HIV has no prejudices or favorites. It will go after anyone.

The Peer Educators told the students where they could receive free testing and informed them of common myths about the virus. With all this information there were very few questions.

HIV Peer Educators has grown to 25 members, considerably more than last year. The fact that more students are wanting to learn about HIV and it's causes is comforting. Peer Educator Jayson Gawthorpe said, "For the past three years Yolo county has been number one in teen pregnancy and chlamydia cases."

Our school is so lucky to have an organization that informs us about AIDS so we don't kill ourselves with ignorance.

Valedictorian, salutatorian named

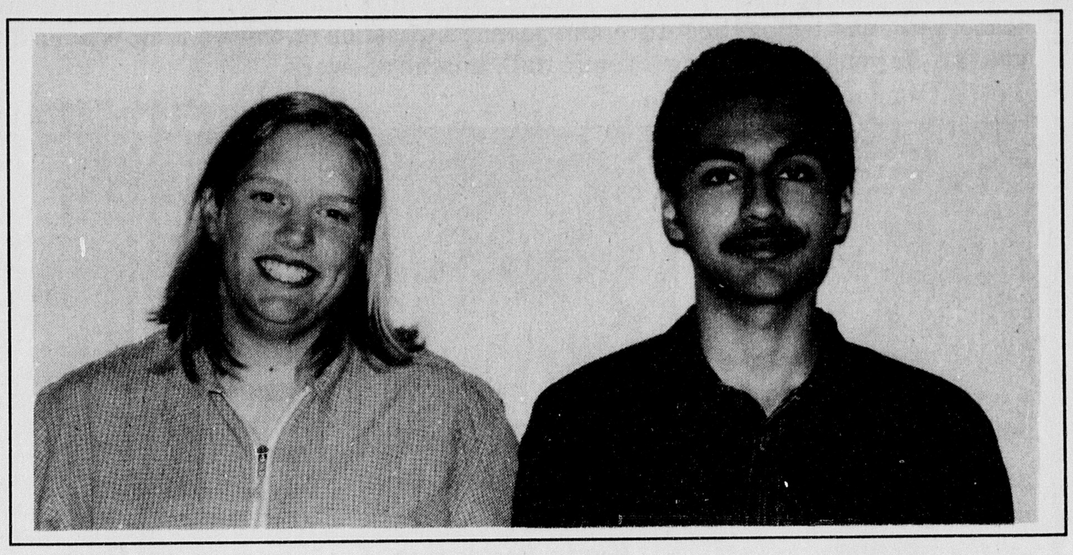
By Rishi Sharma
News and Opinion Editor

Alonzo Garcia and Bethany Monroe have been named valedictorian and salutatorian of the Class of 1997.

The valedictorian and the salutatorian are the seniors with the highest and next highest cumulative grade point averages.

Alonzo's gpa is 4.28. He plans to study electrical engineering at UC Davis. His advice to RC students is, "Stay humble, whatever you do."

Bethany's gpa is 4.27. She plans to study biochemistry at Boston University. Her advice to RC students is, "Don't forget to breathe."



Bethany Monroe and Alonzo Garcia are the salutatorian and valedictorian this school year.

B.E.S.T. students honored at banquet

By Rishi Sharma
News and Opinion Editor

How would you like to be served a delicious plate of lasagna in the beautiful Sacramento Library Galleria with a brand new graphing calculator to play with?

That is what three students at RC got to do this month because of their involvement in B.E.S.T. Jayson Gawthorpe was rewarded for Leadership of B.E.S.T. Barbara Silveira was rewarded for Spirit of B.E.S.T. and Sheeza Ashraf was rewarded as the Academic Achiever of B.E.S.T.

All three winners won Casio Graphing Calculators.

World War II veteran speaks to world history students about Holocaust

Mr. Ernest James speaks to five world history classes about the horrors of German concentration camps.

By Amanda Valdez
Staff Writer

Ernest James, a veteran of World War II, spoke to five freshman world history classes recently about his dramatic holocaust experience. Mr. James, a Protestant born in Ord, Nebraska 77 years ago, is a speaker for the Sacramento Jewish Federation.

Mr. James was stationed near the German city of Nordhausen, 60 miles west of Berlin, at the end of World War II. He looked upon thousands of bodies at a Nazi death camp. Ernest James is a survivor, a hero, and a reminder of the holocaust that happened over 50 years ago. He observed and helped clean up what he called a "killing camp." What he saw was so horrible that it was beyond what he had ever imagined: thousands of bodies decomposing in train cars and partly burned in a crematory.

Mr. James has shared his information and story with 8,000 other students in the past five years. He wants to get across to everyone that the holocaust is a matter of fact, true, and to convince people that the revisionists who say the holocaust never happened are wrong.

Ernest James wants the younger generation to know so they can pass it on, so they can say that they heard to true story from someone who was there and saw the evidence of the holocaust.

RC sends players to Senior Optimist Game

By Alyssa Murphy
Staff Writer

Mark Munsinger and Andrew Odor will represent RC in the Senior Optimist Basketball Game on the South team.

The best high school basketball talent in the Sacramento area will play on June 21 at Center High School.

Cheering them on will be our own Kristin Pruitt and Jennifer McFadden, selected Senior Optimist Cheerleaders. "I think it's really cool and I'm really excited," says Kristin.

Kristin and Jennifer also made the Sacramento City Panthers cheerleading squad.

Come to school or lose your license

Students who are habitually truant may have their driver's licenses suspended for a period of up to a year.

By Rishi Sharma
News and Opinion Editor

Habitually truant students at RC may soon find themselves without a drivers license. Under a law that went into effect in Yolo County on August 1, school districts can petition the juvenile traffic court to suspend a student's license for a period of up to one year.

David Kopperud, the Child Welfare and Attendance Administrator for the Washington Unified School District, says that Washington Unified has taken several students to the court and had their licenses suspended. Most of the students who have been taken to the juvenile traffic court are in attendance at Yolo High School, but a few attend RC.

According to Mr. Kopperud, anyone who "ditches" three or more days is defined as truant by the California Education Code.

Although this definition of habitually truant can be applied to many students at RC, the district uses its ability to suspend a license sparingly. According to Mr. Kopperud, the district will only seek a license suspension when "all other means are exhausted" for getting students to school.

Before students are required to appear before the court, the school district does try other means of coercing the student to come to school. Calls home are made when an attendance problem appears. This is usually followed by a parent conference.

If the problem persists, the student is called before the School Attendance Review Board (SARB). The SARB is made up of a representative from the school district, police department, the probation department, the office of the district attorney, and a member of the social services department.

If the student violates the instructions of the SARB, then he may go before the juvenile traffic court with his parents. Mr. Kopperud feels that it is very effective to have the parents before the judge along with the student. "It puts them (the parents) in a position where they must question the issue."

The judge may suspend a student's license for a period of up to one year. If the student does show improvement in his attendance, the school district may request that the judge rescind his previous decision, and according to Mr. Kopperud, this will always be done.

Band gets new uniforms

By Ailysha Taylor
Staff Writer

This year River City's band would like to give a big hug and thanks to the Board of Education and Boosters' club for helping with the purchase of the new band uniforms. Yes, that's right, the brand-spanking-new band uniforms have finally arrived.

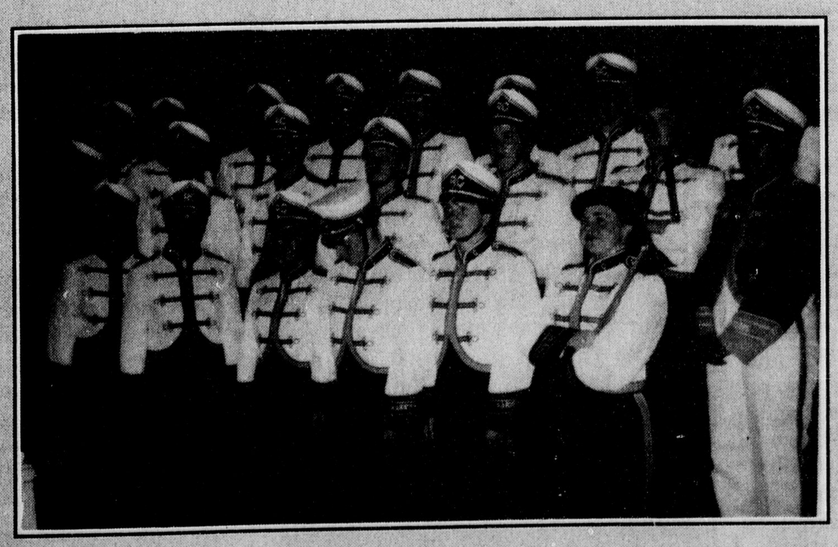
If you haven't seen the band members in their spiffy new navy blue pants, white jackets and gold shoulder ropes to complement the gold "Raiders" on the sleeve, then you must have missed the spring competition they played in Vallejo against Dublin High, Livingston, Capuchino and Encinal High Schools.

Wearing their amazingly comfortable uniforms the members of the band all agree that the new up-to-date uniforms help them play better and sound as big as the Marine band and just as talented.

Sophomore Crystal Palmer says,"The uniforms are comfortable, and we don't have any big ugly hats, that look like Q-tips."

The seniors had their opportunity to wear the new and improved uniforms before they graduate. Senior Tiffany Campbell says she feels more proud and less embarrassed to strut her stuff in the uniform.

If you have ever had any thoughts of joining the band, well, don't waste time! Sign-up next year and you can be part of another 18 years of wear and tear to the dazzling new uniforms.



The River City band members sport their new uniforms.

Students recognized for academics

By Rishi Sharma
News and Opinion Editor

On May 22, staff, students, and parents gathered in the RC quad to celebrate academic excellence at River City. Students received awards for their placement in the scholastic letter competition, membership on academic teams, and other honors.

Other students who were honored at the awards night were members of the California Scholarship Federation who received honors cords to wear at graduation. In order to qualify for this honor, students must have been a member of CSF for four semesters. This year, 13 students qualified, up from 3 last year.

The vocational education department also recognized students for achievement in wood shop, basic home repair, and drafting. Finally, two students were inducted into Quill and Scroll, the international honorary society for high school journalists, at the ceremony.

Congratulations to all the winners!

Question on the Quad

The future can be a scary thing. Just ask any senior and he will tell you that. In the spirit of ending of the school year, and facing the future, this month's Question on the Quad is: Where do you see yourself in ten years? As you can see, we got some, well, unique answers.

Baker sets the record straight

From Mr. Baker
RC Weights Teacher

Apparently, stories I have related to my classes have been retold in an exaggerated fashion, prompting allegations of my spreading tall tales. I thank the Review for the chance to set the record straight. As those who know me will attest, I hold the truth in the highest regard and adhere strictly to the facts.

I am a peaceful man by nature. I prefer to solve problems by appealing to one's intelligence. However, on several occasions I have been forced into situations which evolved into physical confrontations.

I am a peaceful man by nature. I prefer to solve problems by appealing to one's intelligence. However...

The first took place during the Jazz Festival in the summer of 1985. I was moonlighting as a bouncer for Fat City in Old Sacramento when Hulk Hogan and King Kong Bundy, in town for a match at Arco, came in. They became increasingly unruly and I was forced to ask them to leave. They left, but threatened to return to "settle the score." After closing, I made my way down Front Street. Suddenly, out of the shadows, Hulk Hogan and King Kong Bundy attacked from behind. My response was swift and deadly. I disposed of the behemoths by employing the ancient art of Nakazato Karate, of which I am a Grand Master. Both men lay writhing in pain on the cobblestones as I walked to the car, never looking back.

The second incident took place in 1987 during the annual senior trip to Santa Cruz. I did battle with a crazed sea lion who was terrorizing staff and students. I tried to reason with the culprit when he made a disparaging comment about my mother. The ensuing beating he endured can only be described as vicious.

The third altercation took place deep in the forests of Mount Shasta. I was on a solo birdwatching expedition when I suddenly came face to face with a sasquatch. He intimated that birdwatching was for "sissies." I have one of his teeth in a mayonnaise jar as a testimonial to the discipline he received.

The final episode took place last fall during a men's basketball tournament. Coach West and Coach Shawn King joined me at Sizzlers to celebrate a particularly sweet victory. Unbeknownst to me, the disgruntled opposing coaches were seated behind us. In a move that proved hazardous to their health, the brazen coaches pelted me from behind with garbanzo beans from the salad bar. Several attempts at peaceful reconciliation failed and a brawl ensued. I quickly incapacitated two foes with a textbook right-left combination. Coach King dropped a third conspirator with an expertly tossed kiwi to the forehead, ending the scuffle.

These events were recounted in an accurate and tempered style in the precise manner in which they occurred. See me for specifics.

Stacy Winham likes animals

By Alyssa Murphy
Staff Writer

Periodically, we will be peeking into Room 57 where a group of students, despite challenging difficulties work to educate themselves and help others realize that with determination, anything is possible.

In the spotlight this issue, we have Ms. Stacy Winham, a sophomore here at River City. When she moved from Eureka to West Sacramento two years ago, she enrolled at RC and loves it here. "I'm glad we moved. This school is a lot of fun," she said. Her most memorable experiences so far have been the rallies.

In her spare time, Stacy likes to watch television. "My favorite show is Friends. It is so funny," she said. Stacy also likes to go to the movies and watch comedies.

This RC student lives with her mother, Theresa and her grandmother, Lora. She also lives with her two cats named Honey and Louie. "I love animals. I might get a dog for my birthday," Stacy said.

This summer will be a hectic time for Stacy. "My grandmother is taking me to Disneyland and my mom might take me to visit her brother in Nevada," Stacy explained. She will also be enrolling in an English course in Woodland.

Stacy is a wonderful person with a kind heart for animals and people. She is going to miss her friends during the summer, but is excited about next year. "I'm going to miss the seniors too, but next year will be fun when I'm a junior," Stacy said. Watch out RC, this girl is cool!

What do I want out of school?

Advice from a former student at RC about school.

From Ty Fisher
CSU Sacramento Student

I am a freshman at CSUS now, but I used to go to River City. What I have learned in the past two semesters at college has made me more aware of many problems that I did not realize when I was attending high school. Problems that, had I been aware of them, I could have watched out for. I know a lot of you, I am friends with a lot of you, and even to those of you I don't know, I still think I have something important to say that might help you out.

Many of you (probably the majority) think that school is a waste of time, a way to keep you busy and off the streets. You see school as something you just have to do. Like a job, you punch in at 7:55 am and you punch out at 2:45 pm. In between is a blur of social encounters and maybe a little history and math. When you get home you contemplate doing some homework, but you end up watching TV or playing video games. I did all the same things as you guys do now.

In fact, I considered myself the funny man and made my career by looking for spaces to make wisecracks while my teachers talked. The teacher would take me aside, tell me that I was a "distraction to the others" and that I was "being rude." I didn't care, why should I? I didn't want to be there in the first place! I didn't realize then how much this really does hurt the effectiveness of the class.

And like many of you do, sometimes I copied my friends' homework, because I was too lazy to do it the night before. And hey, I got good grades. Couldn't question that, they were right there on my report card! But what did I learn? Was there anything behind those letters? Now in college, I am finding out that many of the things I thought I knew, I really don't.

School was created to help you become a better person, to educate you, to make you successful. You have to be there by law right now, so instead of talking to your neighbor all class period and messing around, listen to the teacher, and take some notes. Think about what is being said, reflect on it later, and try to apply it to your own life. Set high goals for yourself and try as hard as you can to reach them.

Does this all sound corny? Have you heard this stuff before? I know that the answer for most of you is "Yes!" Well guess what, it's all true. I did not realize it while sitting in class at River City, but I realize it now, and I am trying to convey it to you.

Somerset Maugham once said, "It is a great nuisance that knowledge can only be acquired through hard work." You reach a point in college when you ask yourself why you are there. The answer for me now is because I WANT TO LEARN!! I like to read books now. I get excited before certain lectures about what I will take away from them. And after reading this article I am hoping you will arrive at the same conclusion I have, but rather two or three years earlier than I did.

Jessica's Braindrips

Being Senior Editor of the paper has bonuses. One is getting space to empty out the junk that's been floating around my mind all month into a semi-organized format. I get to do this every month, too! Wait, maybe it's just a creative way to fill space...never mind.

I love this time of year. Why? School's almost out! DUH! Since this is my last column, I'm going to give you all some words of experience about high school. Why can I do this? Because I'm outta here!

Everyone, from the incoming freshman to the outgoing senior, needs to listen to this. Don't miss out on anything, because you WON'T get a second chance. Do EVERYTHING. Play sports, try out for the play, join clubs, just be involved! Do you really want to look back at your yearbook and only see your face in the class list? We'll never be teenagers again (in this life), so we need to live it up now!

Face it, y'all. These are the last years we have as kids. We need to be kids! Next time you have free time, do "childish" things. Go outside and blow bubbles in the sunshine, because it won't be the same when you do it with your own children ten years from now. Swing on swings at the park and see how high you can get. Run through the sprinklers in your back yard on the Fourth of July. It may feel funny (actually very weird) at first, but when it's over you sit back and think, "Wow. That was fun!"

Don't completely play through the summer, though. If you are in an accelerated course, do the summer assignments! Trust me, I speak from experience. It's very hard to try and read four books, then do the reading logs, in a week and a half.

Of course, there are the individual things that relate to each class.

Class of '98, you only have one more year. Don't screw it up. Senioritis IS REAL, and it strikes HARD.

Class of '99, junior year is probably the toughest year of high school. Keep pushing, and you'll get through it fine.

Class of '00, I'm jealous of your graduation numbers. Watch out for the "sophomore slump." Just because you've made it through your first year doesn't mean you know everything.

Class of '01, high school is WAY different from middle school. Don't slack off! If you fail, you fail. You don't move on to the next level.

Now to MY class. Class of 1997. WE DID IT!!! We've gone through it all together, and it's over. As we near graduation, it's getting harder and harder to believe that we're "grown up."

So, au revoir, River City. We're not as bad as everyone says. It's been surreal. See you in ten years.

Our Voices

This month's topic: Graduation and the end of the school year.

Every year I am a little sad that school is ending, not only because some of my friends leave but also because that means it's one more year closer to when I graduate.

This year is a lot more depressing for me because I have a lot of friends that are graduating and it also means there's only one more year left until I'm out of here.

Even though most of my friends will be staying in Sacramento, it feels like they're going to MARS and I'll never see them again. Besides, if I'm still in high school and they're in college, we kind of will be on different planets, or at least in two different worlds.

The thought of my friends graduating scares me because I know it will change them. They're moving on and getting started with their lives. Oh, yeah, and here I am still in high school.

So as the end of the year draws near, my feelings remain bittersweet. Even though I know that things will probably never be as they were in high school, I can always remember the fun I had with my graduating buddies, and I can always reflect on the memories that will stay deep in my mind and close to my heart.

I'm just glad that most of my friends are deciding to continue their educations. I am sad about my friends leaving, but I just wish all of my graduating friends the best of luck in college and hope that they think of me when they're living it up and going to those great college parties.

-Lisa Galvez

Another year goes by and River City is again producing a generation of young adults who have endured four years of tests, finals, dances, and school functions to finally take that walk down the aisle of success on graduation day. But what does all this mean? For me it means losing good friends to the world of crazy jobs and hectic schedules, and coming back for one last year at River City.

This year has gone by so fast that it's starting to feel uncomfortable. It's like just last week I was a freshman trying to adjust to the chaotic life of high school, but in reality I'm a junior a year away from graduation.

Before you enter high school there is always that one person who is sitting there telling you your four years are gonna' go by hella fast. But being that headstrong, know-it-all type of person that you are, you automatically refuse to believe it. Well, here's a newsflash for you. The four years you embark upon to receive that diploma will go by so fast that one minute it seems like you're attending your first football game and the next you're attending the senior bar-b-que.

Students show strength at weight lifting competition

By Josh Branham
Staff Writer

On May 9, River City held the third annual Power Lifter Of the Year competition. The weightlifters not only had to compete against each other, and the weights, they had to contend with the extreme heat in the gym. Most of the competitors were sweating even before the competition started, but they all bore down and took the heat.

For the women's open weight competition the winner was Margo Palencia with a combined lifting weight of 695 pounds. Second was Melissa Aguilar who lifted 590 pounds. Third was Dawn Noel with 460 pounds.

The men's open competition was one of much trash talking, but it was all backed up. The winner was Will Welcher, the biggest talker, who lifted 1,125 pound. Steve Hawkinson was second with 1,065 pounds, and third was Marty Trevino with 655 pounds.

The strength-to-weight scores are determined by dividing the lifter's total weight lifted by the lifter's body weight. The women's strength-to-weight competition was won by 99-pound Kristin Pruitt who had an average of 4.040. In second was Alyssa Murphy with a 3.715, and finishing third was Sarah Lesly with a 2.064.

For the men, the winner was Calvin Bell, who crushed the competition with a great 6.115. In second was Yevgeny Stetstenko with a 3.576, and third was Donny Timas with a 3.486.

Varsity girls bring home first RC swim banner

By Jose Brambila
Staff Writer

River City's swim team dove in and swam their way to victory. Coach Heller's varsity girls won their league meet against Marysville, Winters, and Lindhurst. Even though they won the league meet, due to their season record the varsity girls tied with Marysville for the league championship.

This is the first year ever that the swim team has won a league championship. A banner will be placed on the wall of the gym to remind us of this accomplishment. The 1997 varsity girls team was made up of Leesa Aragon, Jill Braden, Jennifer George, Jessica Honsinger, Lynne Laughlin, Jamie McCall, Katrina Mistiuk, Sarah Moore, Jennifer Munsinger, Irina Nelipovich, Jennifer Obara, Barbara Silviera, and Cathy Smith.

The swimmers who made all-league were Jill Braden, Sarah Moore, Jamie McCall, Nathan Pina, Jennifer Munsinger, and Jennifer George.

Sarah Moore fluttered her way to first place in the 100-meter butterfly, Jennifer Munsinger took first in the 100-meter breast stroke, and Jamie McCall came five-tenths of a second from making sections.

Even though the boys had an extremely small team this year, they finished a prouder group of Raiders than they may have in the beginning of the year.

Don't blame them, though. Just imagine being on a team with only five swimmers going up against a team with ten to fifteen swimmers.

Although you may be tired when it's your turn to swim the next race, you have to go, but on the other hand your opponents have two to three times as many swimmers therefore getting twice as much rest. So if any of you want to show off your stuff and improve from this years record, contact Coach Heller about joining next year.

The records for the season are jv girls 1-5, varsity girls 4-2 and varsity boys 1-5.

RC tennis wins back-to-back championships

Nine of sixteen section spots go to RC players

By Jessica Honsinger
Senior Editor

River City's tennis team has done it again! With a 24-0 season, at 10-0 in league, the tennis team has taken the GEL championship. Also, nine of the sixteen spots reserved for GEL at section playoffs were reserved for RC players.

Individual results from league were great, as well. Ahmad Fazel took first in boys' singles. Meuy Saechao took first and Douangchanh Lattisima took second in girls' singles. In mixed doubles, the team of Peter Santizo and Khonthavy Phouanglasy took first. In girls' doubles, Bethany Monroe and Ae Noy Xayasone took first as well.

At sections, Meuy Saechao made it to the final round for girls' singles. Ahmad Fazel made it to the semi-finals in boys' singles. The girls' doubles team of Monroe and Xayasone made it to the quarter-finals. The mixed doubles team of Phouanglasy and Santizo made it to the semi-finals. Douangchanh Lattisima made it to the first round of girls' singles play. The boys' doubles team of Sarom Phoung and Jeff Wright made it to the first round as well.

To top an awesome season, Coach Brooks was was named tennis coach of the year for GEL for the second consecutive year.

Varsity baseball makes playoffs

By Joe Dastagirzada
Staff Writer

This year's varsity baseball team has finished the season with an overall record of 15-7 and is 10-2 in league play under Coach LoForte.

Asked about the pros and cons of this year's team, Coach LoForte replied "Our pros are that we have extremely good pitching. It was one of our best. We were competitive in every game except one against Placer, and we had a good season. Our cons are that we had poor defense in close games, and we didn't have consistent offense through the year." Coach LoForte said if there were one game he could play over this year, "I would like to play the Encina game. I believe that game was very disappointing. It took the co-championship away from us."

This year's league game losses were against Colfax 3-2 and Encina 4-3. The wins were against Golden Sierra 5-0 and 7-3, Marysville 3-1 and 10-2, Colfax 8-2, Lincoln 5-2 and 6-0, Encina 7-0, Lindhurst 4-1 and 2-1.

At press time, the Raiders were 1-0 in the playoffs, having beaten Vanden 12-8 on Saturday, May 24.

Golf sends two to sub-sections

By Josh Branham
Staff Writer

This was the best year yet for River City's golf team.

Kevin Bagdazian and Abba Singh made it to the sub-sections, held at a course called Diablo Grande.

Kevin Bagdazian, last year's MVP, said that golf is his favorite sport. Kevin is one of the few people who watches golf (the other being Coach West). "Truthfully, watching videos and reading golf books has helped my golf game the most," said Kevin.

Kevin does not want to be a professinal golfer right away. He would like to have another career first as a waterfowl biologist.

RC's successful sports year comes to a close

RC claims four championships, one second place slot, and three GEL Coaches of the Year

By Josh Branham and Joe Dastagirzada
Staff Writers

This year's River City sports program had a great year! We won four league championships: freshman football, varsity boys' basketball, tennis, and girls' varsity swimming, and a second place in boys' varsity baseball.

Freshman football's championship came off a 10-0 record for the season.

The championship for varsity boys' basketball took the team to the first round of section playoffs.

The victory for tennis was the second championship in as many years, this year with a 24-0 record, 10-0 in league.

The varsity girls' swim team win was the first swimming championship ever for RC.

RC also had three coaches named GEL Coach of the Year: Coach West for varsity boys' basketball, Coach Brite for varsity girls' basketball, and Coach Brooks for tennis. This is the second year in a row that Coach Brooks has been so honored.

Congratulations to Coach Brooks for being named GEL Coach of the Year for Tennis!

Track has successful season

By Amanda Valdez
Staff Writer

This year's track team was hard working and successful. At the final league meet of the year at Sac State on May 14 the varsity boys tied for third place. Junior varsity boys and the girls both placed fifth.

The River City boys and girls who placed in the top 5 were those who qualified for the league sub sections at American River College on May 21. They were Mamie Turner, Rose Herr, Steven Tate, Marshaun Tate, Mark Brazell, David Clayton, and Kelly Rich.

At the Dixon-Ram Invitationals, the varsity boys took 1st place in the 4x100 relay.

Ms. Ransom, the track team coach said, "The team all tried hard, worked hard, and had a lot of fun. They also all broke personal records. Varsity boys went from the bottom to third place. The girls went from bottom to fifth place. They won a lot more meets and brought home lots of medals from invitationals."

This year's girls most valuable runner is Kelly Rich. The most improved runner is Stephanie Head. For the boys, Steven Tate is the most valuable runner, and Mark Brazell is the most improved runner.

Soccer season ends

By Josh Branham
Staff Writer

This years varsity girls' soccer team had a good growth year, commented Coach Restivo. The team had some wins, some ties, and they were very competitive in all of their games.

Coach Restivo added that having only one senior on the team means a large number of returning players next year. He said that his girls could be in the hunt for the league championship next year.

Mr. Villegas was a major contributor to the team as he tought the players a lot and the players had fun with him as coach.

Overall, Coach Restivo feels that it was a good season and he is really looking forward to next year.

THE RIVER CITY HIGH SCHOOL REVIEW PRESENTS

SAFEWAY Student-Athletes of the Month:

KATHY CLAYTON, a sophomore, was nominated by her soccer coach for her attitude and performance.

A sweeper for the team, Kathy is "sure to gain league recognition," says her coach.

She maintains a 3.85 GPA.

BETHANY MONROE, a senior at RCHS, has been a varsity tennis player for four years. In addition to outstanding tennis performance, she holds a 4.5 GPA this quarter!

She will attend Boston University in the fall.

NIKKI NOVOA, a senior, plays varsity softball and also loves soccer.

She is a ten year veteran of the East Yolo Soccer Club.

Nikki, who has been a teacher's assistant at RC, will attend Sacramento City College.

MARGO PLACENCIA is another senior who plays softball and soccer.

Margo enjoyed her desktop publishing and yearbook classes at RC, and maintains a 3.0 GPA.

She will attend Sacramento City College and transfer to a four-year university.

SENIOR CLASS 1997

Senior wills for the class of 1997

I, Juan Acevedo, leave all my laughs and wrestling skills, what little I have. I want to say wassup to all the doggs-and the little pupps, too. And, any defense in Cali still can't stop the train baby. "Can't nobody take my pride, can't nobody hold me down, oh no, I got to keep on moving!" "West Sac!"

I, Lindsey Ahern, leave the underclassmen my independence and wittiness. I will live happily ever after.

I, Jezikka Avalos, leave to my cousin Leticia Valenzuela all the best luck in the world. I hope that she has the greatest three years of her life. Just remember not to be stuck-up like most people here and just be yourself. Good luck, and I love you!

I, Jaime Canas, leave River City with a fat smile. To my sister Vanessa I leave a thank you for all the notes. For all the other Carnalitos, I leave my 40 water. And to Monica V., I love you.

I, Vicky Cordell, leave Jenna S., Jennifer H., Christina H. and Jessica McCurdy the thought that "all men are dogs, even the 1% that say they aren't." I leave Eva and Salina my support, and Tony, you get to keep all my complaints! But NOBODY gets my crown!

I, Erin Dragon, leave the underclassmen my knowledge and spirit. I leave Allison Miller my funny cheer expressions. I leave Kristy Marston my strength of ignoring RC gossip. I leave Amanda Lamar my voice and Jamie Forry my clever flirtiness. I leave Sarah Leisure my blonde hair so you can have six inches more of being an airhead. Last but not least I leave RC my love.

I, Melissa Ferrell, leave to those deserving, the following: To the school I leave my somewhat colorful memory. To Mr. Benning my bad, tasteless jokes. To my mom, the right to change one of my rooms into a storage area, and to everyone the right to mourn the loss of my wonderful presence in your lives.

I, Wendy Foster, leave my unfinished homework assignment to Nik Prawdzik, and my McDonald's bib to Zach Williams.

I, Melissa Hemmens, leave Nicole Galvez my handkerchief to cry on when I'm gone. To Christina Hemmens, my will to see the bright side of everything. To Lisa Galvez, my snorting ability. To Raman Bola my great skills and intelligence in playing soccer, ha ha!

I, Jessica Honsinger, leave my column to anyone bizarre enough to want it. I leave next year's Review staff my un-ladylike vocabulary for use during layout. Rishi, you get the computers! I leave Chris my amazing jump-roping skills. You're just jealous! I leave everyone my love, my filthy mind, and my infamous quote: I'm 99.9% angel, but that .1% will getcha every time!

I, Leslie Kay Lamkin, leave my brother Josh my sexy body, good looks, and great personality. To Amber Denney, my appetite and forced satisfaction with myself. Your relationship together has my blessings. The turquoise legacy is passed down to the class of 2001, but you will never live up to 1997's superiority!

I, Gerrit Markus, leave behind all of my memories and jokes to my underclassmen friends and family. Please use them wisely and remember me always. Cowboy up!!

I, Jennifer McFadden, leave all my spirit to Sarah. I leave Mikey Dick my old radio to tear apart. I leave Tony the ability to spend all his money on food. I leave Amy Greenhalgh all my dj abilities. I leave the cheerleaders the "blue moon," and Baker the "waters." Last but not least I leave the senior hill to the freshmen.

I, Jorge Alberto Melendez, leave my "raza" to accomplish whatever goals they dream of. I would like to say thanks to all the teachers that taught me and led me to the right direction. Thanks to Ms. Aldrete, Ms. Green, and Ms. Flynn. Good luck to all my "rockero" friends.

I, Holly Mendes, leave the 97-98 cheer squad my dancing skills. To my brother, I leave our family's good looks. To Andrea, "you know." To the madrigals, my ability to sing. To the class of 2001, the ability to rock the quad with turquoise as well as us, the class of '97.

I, Angela Mochel, leave my cousin, Christina Harmon, my love. I'm gonna miss you. To Sarah Leisure, my cheerbuddy, I leave my good behavior so that she can cheer again. To all of the cheerleaders I leave the good times to carry on. I love ya, guys.

I, Alyssa Murphy, leave my car to anyone who is desperate enough to take it. To Squishy, I leave my ability to care. To Leticia, I leave my keen insight. To both of you, I leave my wisdom and ability to laugh in spite of it all. I would leave some height to Jackie, but I have none to spare!

I, Courtney Myers, leave my wit and charm to Pootllama. To Leticia I leave my insults. To Josh Branham, I leave the peach on my shirt, and to my sister, I leave the ability to have as much fun as I did at RC.

I, Nikki Novoa, leave my softball skills to all the softball players at RC, my style and my game to Christina, keep it going dogg! I want to say what's up to the whole team. "West Sac"

I, Jennifer Ortega, leave my new baby sister cheerleader all my cheer and dancing skills, and I also leave the skill of turning heads. To Carl I leave my driving experience.

I, Khonthavy Phouanglasy, leave Loan, Sarom, Phoungeun, DL, Potnick, Aenoy, Sue, Prak, KC, Kham, James, RJ, SP, Coach, Jeff, and the whole team best luck for years to come. I'll miss you a bunch. Dave, easy on them! Coach, I'm very proud of you for giving me the opportunity to go to sections as #1 mixed doubles with Peter. You work us hard, thank you. Love you tennis team!!

I, Alicia Pruitt, leave my riding ability to Amy Greenhalgh and Tasha Rojo. I leave Josh my mouth. I leave Mark P. and Justin D. all the parties. I leave Mimi all the quarters and all the jello.

I, Kristin Pruitt, leave all of the underclassmen my spirit and perfection. I leave my little brother my hair. I leave Amanda Lamar my poles. Last but not least, I leave Coach Baker my muscles, just in case the garbanzo bean incident happens again!

I, Aide Ruvalcaba, leave my little sister Lily my good humor so that she will have a great senior year. I leave Mimi my work so that she will pass her classes and graduate. I leave my cousin Josue my intelligence so he will pass his classes for the next three years to come. To the Class of 1997, goodbye and good luck.

I, Liane Saucedo, leave River City to become a roadie for the band "Slightly Stupid." I leave Zach Williams all my assorted colors of hair dye. I leave Justin Mechill my ignorance. I leave my outlook on life to Sal Huizar.

I, Barbara Silveira, leave Nancy the sole use of our room. To Claude I leave the knowledge that you can do anything your heart desires as long as you want it enough. To my parents I leave the pleasure of seeing one of their children graduate. To the class of 2001, I leave the knowledge that kissing up is terribly underrated and also the beautiful color turquoise.

I, Sarah Rae Templin, leave the ability to do everything to the class of 1998. Reach for the stars; they're within your grasp. To my little brother I leave a school free of all other Templins. You've earned it, bro. To my friends (you know who you are) I leave you my promise to keep in touch. I PROMISE!!!

I, Sarah Vanderford, leave those left at River City these words of confusion. Spend your life searching for more than that which is before. Ponder the impossible, then reach for whatever it may be. Find the obscure, do the imaginative adventures...Just how far can you spit off the pyramids in Egypt?

I, Will Welcher, leave the Celeste's with Italiano knowledge. All ballers better represent. To all hoopers: Don't play Deisal and to all AA members stay away from Born in East L.A. D. Harder. XTREME Thanks to Tino, Mercato, Guido, Can't stop the train. P.S. Thanks to all the ladies who have been down: you know who you are.

RC students hit by Senioritis outbreak

Attack affects all seniors, some underclassmen

By Jorge Melendez
Staff Writer

One question is all I ask. Why the heck am I so lazy now that I am a senior and close to graduating? I am so darn lazy that I have no idea how I wrote this article.

Some say it's just SENIORITIS (a disease that is the lack of will to complete tasks because of summer heat and graduation). This definitely describes my mood, but the only difference is that I try to spend this time sleeping or having fun.

Even the valedictorian has SENIORITIS! Alonzo Garcia complained, "It is so hard coming to school and having to be in class while it is about 100 degrees inside the classroom and all because of SENIORITIS."

What does SENIORITIS do to you? It is a question to which all seniors have the same answers: "Oh, I'm so lazy," "I can't do my homework," and the worst of all, "It's so darn hot that I can't even think straight."

Senior Oscar Guzman said, "Oh, man, this SENIORITIS thing is just killing me. It makes me have bad grades, want to talk to more girls, and sleep in until second or third period. It's like I wish there were some kind of medication or something!"

After talking to these seniors it is clear to me that SENIORITIS is an unavoidable, contagious disease that all seniors, no matter how much they study, catch. After all, even the valedictorian caught it.

Survey looks at seniors' futures, opinions of RC

By Jessica Honsinger
Senior Editor

The class of 1997 is leaving River City for the last time on June 13. Before their exit, though, The Review sent out surveys to find out what seniors will be doing with their lives. The surveys had four questions: "What are you doing after graduation? If school, where; if military, which branch?," "Where do you see yourself in ten years?," "What are the good points of RC?," and "What are the bad points of RC?"

Out of 80 responses, 34 seniors will be going to community college, 26 to Sac. City alone. Eleven will go to CSU, Sacramento, and four are going out of state. The out-of-state colleges are Brigham Young University in Utah, Ripon College in Wisconsin, University of Oregon, Eugene, and University of Wyoming.

Nine responses were headed to the military, four to the Army, two to the Navy, and one each to the Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, and Reserves.

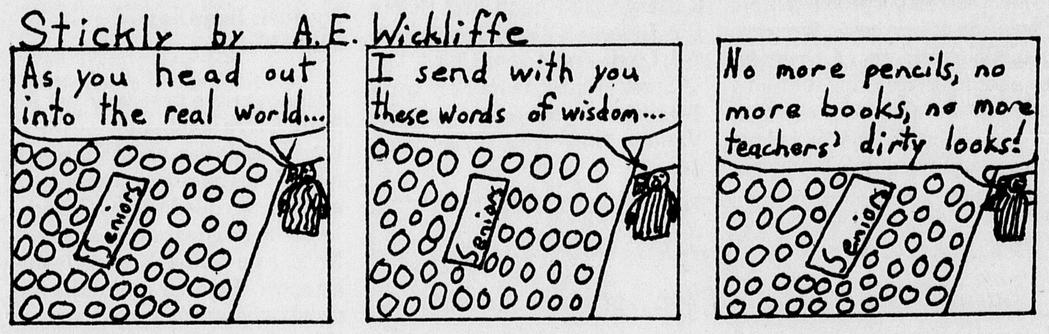
The overwhelming response to the second question was to have a family. Other answers were working and financially stable. Twelve people want to go into some field of medicine. One person just wants to be "out of Sacramento," and one girl answered jokingly, "a topless pole dancer in Jamaica."

The best point of RC, according to seniors, is the teaching staff, mentioned 35 times. The diversity and the people were also mentioned.

Bad points brought up were the old buildings and the lack of space, being mentioned a total of 28 times. One senior mentioned the class of 1998, and one person answered, jokingly, we hope, "my little sister."

Don't forget the MANDATORY graduation practices! Thursday, June 12 at 1:00 pm in the gym, and Friday, June 13 at 7:45 am at the Memorial Auditorium. If you're not there, you won't walk!

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 1997! GOOD LUCK!



Senior Voices

I am looking forward to graduating. The closer June 13th comes the more excited and scared I get at the same time. I keep telling myself I can't wait to get out of high school. But the truth is I really am going to miss these people. I have grown up with most of them. Some I have known since I was three years old. To think that I may never see them again makes me kind of sad. It really hit me the other day when my principal came in to my class and said, "Just enjoy these last few days with these people, because a lot of these people you will not see again until your ten-year reunion."

On the other hand, after I graduate I will not have to be reminded of my past by everyone. I will go on to college. A fresh start, all new people. I will make new friends. I will be going through new experiences. Some will be scary and some will be exciting, but it will be a good change. Graduation is actually the beginning of the rest of my life.

-Melissa Hemmens

With only seven days left in our senior year I feel like the past four years have been a wonderful cluster of fun and friendship that I will remember forever. When we leave RC and our friendships fade, it's neat to know that everyone of us has at least one special memory that can bring us together.

I don't care how many times we have said we hate RC, everyone has a memory here that will stay in their minds forever, a memory that will make them smile. For some of us that memory is a party, but for others it could be a relationship that changed their lives.

The friendships and memories we have made here as individuals and as a class are what makes us special. It doesn't matter where we go or what we do after June 13 because we will always be united as River City's graduating class of 1997.

-Courtney Myers

At the close of our last year in high school, I find myself reminiscing about the memories I've made at River City and friends that have changed my life throughout these four years. Friends seem to produce the fuel that makes me run. Friends bring us the most joy in life, but they can break our hearts as well.

Matty graduated from Grant High last year. I had known him since my junior year and he was my best friend. We spent all the time we could together talking, laughing, crying, just hanging out. We never hid any of our feelings from each other. We knew more about each other than we knew about ourselves. We loved each other because we both accepted each other: our ambitions, fears, even our insecurities.

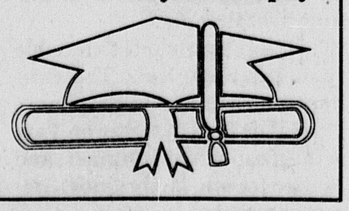
Well, Matty had problems just as everyone does, and he hated confronting them, just as we all do. Matty and his parents never agreed on much so he held a lot of feelings and thoughts inside which became extremely burdensome. It also cultivated a lot of anger and frustration within him because he couldn't talk to them. So, he talked to me. I'd listen to him and try to relate with him, which helped...but it didn't solve anything.

People rely on friends to discuss problems in an attempt to understand them. And one does feel comfortable with one's problems after discussing them, but unless a person takes the time to settle the issue within him/herself, "the waste remains, the waste remains and kills (William Empson)."

Matty did drugs throughout high school "for the thrill of it all," but he also started relying on them whenever his heart hurt. So, he took the easy way out. He'd trip out so he wouldn't have to confront these issues, but all that really did was create more problems. He became overwhelmed with it all. And, instead of seeking help or enduring through it, he lashed out. He was angry and desperate. So, he ended it all the only way he knew how...suicide.

Two weeks ago today, my best friend took his own life. I can't help but question myself and my own character. How could I have not seen this coming? What could I have done to prevent it? But I know that all these questions don't have answers, and I will never know why Matt ended his life. I only know that each one of us leads a problematic life and we all need and use outlets such as friends and family to aid us through it all, but they are just aids. They aren't the solution. We must be our own remedy for all the maladies in life.

-Alyssa Murphy



Police log

May 23, 3:50 p.m.

A 32-year old transient man attempted to pass a stolen and forged check at a Merkley Ave. bank. The suspect was identified by a teller, and the owner of the business named on the check confirmed the check was stolen. The man gave police a false name and falsely claimed he was not on parole. He was booked.

May 24, 12:07 a.m.

A suspect was reported to be locked inside a Sacramento Ave. market he had tried to steal from. Police found the 20-year old West Sacramento man and arrested him.

May 24, 2:22 a.m.

At a Jefferson Blvd. convenience market, a male suspect took three 12-packs of beer and fled southbound on foot.

May 24, 2:30 a.m.

At a Sacramento Ave. market, a male suspect stole two 12-packs of beer and some chips and fled.

May 25, 12:11 a.m.

A woman on 5th St. reported four shots were fired by four male suspects, striking her boyfriend's unoccupied car. Police determined the shooting may have been gang-related, involving a dispute over a girlfriend. A bullet hole was found in the car.

May 25, 1:24 a.m.

Shots were reported fired near a Teal Dr. home in an incident that may have involved a suspect who was subject to a restraining order keeping him away from the residence. No one was injured.

May 25, 3:18 a.m.

A neighbor complained of loud music at an apartment on Maple St.

May 25, 6:43 a.m.

An Evergreen apartment resident reported his father's car to have been stolen the previous night.

May 25, 9:48 a.m.

A Todhunter Ave. apartment resident reported fireworks were being shot off behind the complex. A witness told police that a number of people had seen two gang members give the fireworks to a young boy. The fireworks were confiscated by the manager and children involved were counseled by police.

May 25, 6:01 p.m.

A man told police that a violin and bow worth $15,000 were stolen, while in their case, from a pay phone booth on West Capitol Ave. The man had just come to West Sacramento. He told police the instrument and bow both had identifying marks.

May 25, 6:07 p.m.

A Maple St. man said his seven-year old son had been hit on the head by a rock thrown by another boy. No medical aid was needed, but the man wished to file a police report.

May 25, 6:37 p.m.

A Michigan Blvd. woman said two young girls were walking a pit bull on the street, encouraging their dog to antagonize other dogs in the neighborhood.

May 25, 11:44 p.m.

A pizza delivery restaurant reported one of its drivers had been robbed at gunpoint. The driver had been making a delivery to a West Capitol residence unit when six or seven suspects with covered faces, including one with a handgun, approached and took $30 to $40. Police visited the address and detained a number of juveniles until releasing them into the custody of adults.

Items reported in this police log are taken from police incident reports.

Since the facts have not been verified, names or exact addresses are not used here.

Choosing a Divorce Mediator: A Guide to Help Divorcing Couples Find a Competent Mediator.* Diane Neumann. Henry Hold & Co. 193 pages.

With almost 50 percent of all marriages ending in divorce, more and more couples are using the services of professional mediators to reach settlements. Mediators often reduce the financial and emotional costs of divorce and provide a "civilized" way to reach an agreement about debts, property, and child custody. This guide provides couples with essential information to help them select the right mediator for their situation.

The Antigay Agenda: Orthodox Vision and the Christian Right.* Didi Herman. University of Chicago Press. 200 pages.

Law Professor Did Herman provides a critical analysis of the Christian Right and its mobilization against homosexuality. The antigay agenda, she argues, uses the social and political fervor of this powerful collective movement to "demonize" gays and lesbians. Gay rights, therefore, should be denied, since, according to many fundamentalists, these individuals symbolize the "moral excesses of a culture out of control."

Fevered Lives: Tuberculosis in American Culture Since 1870.* Katherine Ott. Harvard University Press. 168 pages.

Historian Katherine Ott writes a fascinating social history of the changing definition and nature of one medical malady. Seen as a middle class affliction of the late nineteenth century, patients suffering from "consumption" were treated distinctively different than those later suffering from tuberculosis. Yet these pulmonary conditions were one in the same. However, health care practitioners, argues Ott, came to associate tuberculosis with the less affluent and enforced strict social class assumptions.

Locals in uniform

Army Pvt. Jason M. Pease has entered basic infantry training at Fort Benning, Columbus, Ga.

During the training, he will receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, map reading, tactics, military customs and courtesies, and first aid. He will develop basic combat skills, and experience using various weapons available to the infantry soldier.

Pease is the son of Valerie and David Semeria of West Sacramento. He is a 1991 graduate of River City High School.

Shawn A. Butler has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of airman.

The airman is a communications systems installer with the 738th Electronic Installation Squadron at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Miss.

Butler's parents, Carolyn and Stanely Butler, reside in West Sacramento. He is a 1996 graduate of River City High School.

Air Force Airman William W. Weaver II has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

During the six weeks of training, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization, and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Weaver is the grandson of Grace Garcia of West Sacramento, and son of Rebecca Weaver of Sacramento. He is a 1994 graduate of Mira Loma High School in Sacramento.
